Notice of Privacy Practices

Effective Date: May 7, 2026

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR CHILD MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED, AND HOW YOU CAN OBTAIN ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Our Legal Duty

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) is a federal law that requires all medical records and individually identifiable health information — whether electronic, on paper, or oral — to be kept properly confidential. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information (PHI) and to provide you with this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices.

How We May Use and Disclose Information

We may use and disclose your child's medical records only for the following purposes:

- Treatment: Providing, coordinating, or managing health care and related services, including referrals to other providers.
- Payment: Billing and collection activities, confirming insurance coverage, and obtaining reimbursement for services rendered.
- Health Care Operations: Quality assessment and improvement activities, auditing, cost-management analysis, and other internal business operations.
- Appointment Reminders: Contacting you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related services that may be of interest.
- De-Identified Information: We may create and distribute health information from which all personally identifiable references have been removed.

Any other uses or disclosures will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke such authorization in writing at any time, except to the extent that we have already taken action in reliance on it.

Your Rights

You have the following rights regarding your child's protected health information. To exercise these rights, submit a written request to our Privacy Officer:

- The right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of PHI. We are not required to agree to a restriction, but if we do, we are bound by it.
- The right to receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means or at alternative locations.

- The right to inspect and copy your child's PHI.
- The right to request an amendment to PHI that you believe is incorrect or incomplete.
- The right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures of PHI.
- The right to obtain a paper copy of this notice at any time upon request.

Changes to This Notice

We reserve the right to change this Notice of Privacy Practices and to make new provisions effective for all PHI we maintain. A revised notice will be posted in our office and made available upon request. This notice is effective as of May 7, 2026.

Complaints

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you have the right to file a written complaint with our office or with the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, Office for Civil Rights. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
